

His Love Is Stronger

Everywhere about me was fear;
It reared its ugly face always.
But God assured me He was near
And by my side on all these days.

When the stark face of fear so cold
Stared blankly at me much too long,
He told me at that time, "Be bold!",
Encouraging me to stand strong.

To know that He was beside me,
And to believe His Promise of
His Strength stronger than it should be . . .
I faced fear with His Stronger Love.

Through His Spirit I found His Balm
That allowed me my fears to face;
Stronger His Love that brought His Calm
Applied with His Sweet Touch of Grace.
