

A Happy Place

Where happiness resides is He;
There He abides so close to me.

As I savor His Gifts each day,
I know indeed He leads the way.
Most precious is my comfort zone
Even when I may feel alone.
Knowing for certain He is there,
I cherish His Most Loving Care.

When comes the end of long, long day,
When shadows paint a dark display,
He still abides so close to me;
Happiness reigns by His Decree.
Dare I offer Him full-blown praise?
Oh, yes for sure? With me he stays
Until the rising of new sun . . .
For sure! For sure! He is The One!

My life each day a happy place
Where I'm granted His Loving Grace;
With happiness my life fulfilled
As He has bade, as He has willed.
