

A Helping Hand

To love someone in Your Name, Lord,
I must share their burdens each day.
Somehow, I must lighten their loads
And walk with them along life's way.

I must offer a helping hand;
I must be a neighbor to all
Praiseworthy ideals I must seek,
Proffer aid to those who might fall.

On good things I must think each day,
The same time seeking clarity.
It's then that I shall find Your Peace,
Wondrous Gift You have granted me.

To carry another's burdens,
I shall fulfill the law You've set.
In offering a helping hand,
Loving someone, my goal I've met.

Henry W. Gurley