

Finding My Inner Harmony

Peaceful accord I strive to find,
That state in which my world grows still;
I seek it out through prayerful praise
In concord of His Truest Will.

A blending of pure symmetry,
An amity of day and night,
A unison of love and grace,
Resultant concert seems so right

Then comes the music I have sought,
A harmony of heart and soul;
Soft notes, sweet chords now fill the air,
Full praise to Him I now extol.

My praise to Him in balanced flow
Defines my inner harmony;
In pure delight He accepts it
And shares His Love and Grace with me.
