

Can You Say?

Can you say with true honesty,
"Upon that cross, I there belong"?
"It should not be Him, rather me,
Final judgment correcting a wrong".

Christ agonized upon that cross;
For mankind's sins He suffered there.
Picture Him up there! Such a loss!
Heartbreaking agony to bear.

From all His Wounds the blood flowing,
Can you say then, "He died for me"?
Can you identify, knowing
That He died to set all men free?

On that dark day He took all sin;
He took all of mankind's dark shame;
He gave His Life for all to win
His Promised Gift as blood-bought claim.

Henry W. Gurley