

A Kindness Never-ending

Within everyone's reach? Kindness . . .
Such an act can truly unite;
It can inspire; it can rescue
A lonely soul on darkest night.

The face of kindness can restore
The way one views God's Great, Great Love;
Even doubters may realize
It is His Gift shared from above.

Locked or bolted doors may open,
Exposing hopes long locked away;
One kind act brightens that darkness,
Bringing the bold sun's warm, warm day.

And he is there with outstretched hands . . .
Kindness offered with his Own Touch;
And His Kindness? Never-ending . . .
A lonely soul, I need it much.

Henry W. Gurley