

Absence of Failure

Not one of His Words has failed me;
God keeps promises, all of them.
While others may seek other truths,
Instead, they should rely on Him.

Abiding in His Truth sure-fire,
An infallible avenue;
That roadway leads to victory,
A clear route that will see me through.

Looking for God's Presence each day,
I trust Him even in travail;
Abiding in His Word with trust,
My destination? Never fail.

Absence of failure? His Promise;
His Love there, repelling my fear.
I hold on to The Master's Hand . . .
He is present; yes, always near.

Henry W. Gurley