

He Will Never Leave Me

He's ever at my side, I know;
This promise He has made to me.
That promise made so long ago,
Given and blood-bought, on that tree.

Such comfort from that gift I take
As I forge my way through each day;
No negative can ever break
My spirit as I go my way.

To know that he will fight for me
And to sense that He truly cares,
This knowledge limns strong quality
Of the Great Love He always shares.

To know that He will grant me peace,
To know He hears each prayerful plea,
Accepting balm of sweet surcease
I cherish plans He has for me.
